Ambergris Cay, an exclusive private island in the Turks and Caicos, sits 600 miles south of Miami, on the southeast corner of the string of Turks and Caicos Islands that surround the world-famous Caicos Banks.

Aurora is a stunning 4-bedroom retreat, perfect for girls' trips and group gatherings. Nestled on a hillside with breathtaking views of Columbus Beach and the ocean, this single-level villa boasts a spacious open-plan living and dining area, a fully equipped kitchen, and French doors that lead to a large deck. Outside, you'll find a heated pool, sun loungers, and an outdoor dining space designed for relaxation and entertainment. Conveniently located, Aurora is just steps from the beach and close to tennis and pickleball courts. Calico Restaurant is a leisurely 10–15 minute walk or a quick 3-minute golf-cart ride. Monck Beach is 5 minutes away by cart, and the Club House is just 6 minutes. For groups booking multiple villas nearby, Aurora is a 2-minute walk from Poseidon and Neptune and less than 3 minutes by cart from Morning Star. Originally established as a community for private homeowners, Ambergris Cay opened as a private island resort in 2019. Now, travelers seeking a secluded luxury escape can enjoy access to over 1,100-acres of mostly untouched land, ready to be explored by a select few. With just 17 bungalows, 2 two-bedroom beachfront/oceanfront bungalows, and 9 villas for rent on an all inclusive basis, the result is a luxury boutique hotel feel in a vast and diverse setting. Accommodations include beachfront bungalows with heated plunge pools and a collection of privately owned homes and luxury villas, ranging from 3 to 6 bedrooms. The experience is bespoke, tailored to the individual, and ever-evolving.
